

Walt's Clamp

Universal Clamp for Moorings

Walt's Clamp is a rugged universal clamp for attaching cylindrical instrument housings to a mooring line. It fits a cylinder up to 10" in diameter and mooring lines of a range of sizes.

Construction is of Delrin and 316 stainless steel. The clamp may be permanently or temporarily attached to the instrument housing.

The clamp has been used successfully for two-year deployments off the Oregon Coast.

Contact us for more information

760.754.2400 Fax .2485

info@oceanscience.com

www.oceanscience.com

110 Copperwood Way, Suite E
Oceanside, CA 92054

